

Palm Beach Draws Early Visitors for Christmas Season

Villas Begin to Open and Hotels Make Ready for Arrival of Northern Folk Who Are Expected Soon

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 17.—It was not so many years ago that the opening of the Palm Beach season was accidental to the opening of the Breakers, which has usually opened in season for Christmas holidays. But with the early growth of the Palm Beach cottage colony the reason has advanced year by year until this year found many Palm Beach cottagers snugly established for the winter by the end of October or early November. The end of the season has become correspondingly late, so that many find themselves still in their houses early May, and April has come to be known as one of the loveliest months of all the year on the Peninsula.

This year many are planning their advent in Palm Beach before Christmas or immediately following the holiday, to start the New Year in Florida, far from the chill winds and vicissitudes of winter. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Quinn Jones have been at their house in Palm Beach since late October, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Glidden, of New York and Cleveland, also early arrived here. Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia, is planning to arrive at El Mirasol to spend Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Joshua S. Cosden, of the Hotel Plaza, New York, have taken Charles Munn's house for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Cosden are taking down a party of friends to pass Christmas with them, making the journey in their private car.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb have taken the house of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips' house on Wells Road. They will arrive here on December 28 in their private car. It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Webb will be accompanied by their children and will stay with them, making the journey in their private car.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crozer are among the early arrivals. The Crozers have taken a house opposite Roger Hill's cottage on Brazilian Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. G. Coleman Drayton, of Philadelphia, who purchased a cottage near the Everglades Club last season, also will pass the season at Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarence Jones, who purchased their honeymoon last season on the French Riviera, are also to be early arrivals at Palm Beach this season, where as vice-president of the Everglades Club, Mr. Jones is active in its many social affairs. His own private club and restaurant on Sunset Avenue, which he built two years ago in order to insure privacy for his entertainment, probably will be reopened this season.

Harold Sterling Vanderbilt, who purchased Addison Mizner's Spanish villa last season, probably will spend the entire winter season at Palm Beach. Douglas Paige are expected to share the Aloha villa with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Edey, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Payne, with their family, are also expected to spend the winter at Palm Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Thayer, of Philadelphia, who are newcomers to Palm Beach, will live very quietly on account of Mr. Thayer's health.

Wannamaker, who has been in action again. Edward F. Hutton has built a house on Broadway Road, near the Everglades Club, which he expects to occupy this season, and Lieutenant David also purchased an estate for use as a winter home. As usual, Lieutenant McCutcheon plans to supervise aviation affairs for Rodman Wannamaker, who expects to leave his usual office at the opposite side of Lake Worth, and specialize in the long air trips to Havana, Key West, Bimini and Nassau.

And the superb mansion has been built since last season, by Charles F. Harding, of Boston and Dedham, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Tilney, of New York, who have been in Florida, have built an attractive villa near the Everglades Club, which they will occupy. Another beautiful new house nearing completion is that of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lipp, which was designed by Addison Mizner.

Joseph Ritter, who passed the spring and summer in Europe, will open a restaurant, where his music room is said to be the best in Palm Beach, and will entertain extensively. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Granahan White, who purchased a home on Sunset Avenue last season, plan to occupy it following Mrs. White's tour in Canadian provinces. Germain Sulzberger, of Chicago, has taken a house for the winter at Lake Worth, near the Everglades Club. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Endicott Warren, of Beverly Farms, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce Frazier, Mrs. Carrie A. Munn, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Nichols, and others of the Breakers cottage colony are occupying their usual houses.

The Poinciana and the Breakers will have their usual interesting colony. The dates for the usual winter season at Palm Beach Country Club have not yet been decided. The Everglades Club has splendid bookings and its beautiful nurseries have been all booked. Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Luckenbach have again taken a duplex apartment here. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Singer and Mrs. Paris Singer will be prominent members of the Everglades colony, which promises this season to be the most brilliant one, with many new features.

Many Guests Arrive at Breakers for Christmas

Among guests expected to arrive at the Breakers for the Christmas holidays on the opening day, December 20, and following days are Eugene M. O'Neill, who will be joined later by his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Martin Davis, and Mrs. Le Roy Jones, Kingsland Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wozar, and their daughter, Mrs. Renee Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian D. Fairchild of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Louis J. Ebert and George Walbridge Miller. Later arrivals will include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Dilworth, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, who will arrive on his steam yacht but take a suite at the Breakers during his stay. James W. Gerard, Henry T. Sloan, Mrs. Yvonne de Barro, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Raeger, who will wait the opening of the Royal Poinciana, and Mr. and Mrs. William Boies Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Storrs, Howard Major, who arrives from the Colonial, at Nassau; Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin P. Kingsley and Miss Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Harris, of Tuscon; George Ahrens, John W. Faynter, Peter Doederlein party, R. R. Rinehart, George W. Miller, Edward V. Hartford, Mrs. John Clinton Gray, Ellie Wainwright and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Sanborn.

The Poinciana welcomes many old and not a few new guests, and can always depend upon the arrival for tennis week of the Harry Payne Whitney's, the Payne Whitney's, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Jr. and party and many of their little circle. Among New Yorkers who will pass the season at the Poinciana are Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Raeger, Wilmot H. Smith, A. C. Southerland, Arthur Clapp, W. H. Baldrige, H. H. St. John, David Miller, Dr. Harry P. Swift, David H. Luke, William B. Averell, Milo M. Belding, C. Morton Bellak, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Sell, Mr. and

Mrs. A. F. Eads, Mrs. C. Talbot Taylor, Adolph Lewisohn, Victor Herbert and party, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Davis, Dr. Robert C. Beal, Raymond Artele, Dr. Samuel Gant, Charles B. Knight, Alvah Davidson, Richard H. Swartwout, William M. Wadsworth, Frank Tilford and party, Samuel E. Seibman, John L. Lummis, E. R. Campbell, George Richards, Franklin Pettit.

This promises also to be a most important yachting season at Palm Beach, and the inlet is now sufficiently deep to allow the passage of steam yachts such as Willis Sharp Kilmer's and Harry Payne Whitney's. Many houseboats are already en route for the South, and from Jacksonville and St. Augustine south on the Halifax and Indian rivers and Lake Worth many new pleasure craft will be seen during the coming season.

Nassau Prepares for Lively Social Season

Porcupine Club and Hotels Prepare as Winter Visitors Begin to Arrive

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
NASSAU, N. P., Bahamas, Dec. 17.—Nassau, after being "off the social map" during the war, has regained its former prestige and the present season, beginning with the opening of the Royal Victoria on December 27, promises to be a very gay one. The vanguard is already established here, including several who will have cottages for the season. The Porcupine Club, which is the rendezvous of the smartest society of Nassau, will welcome a few new members.

The official life at Government House includes many balls and garden parties of the true British sort, and with the number of English and Canadian society people here Nassau assumes a very cosmopolitan character.

This season the West Indian and South American cruises will make Nassau a port of call. Lady Williams-Taylor, of Montreal, whose estate is the show place of the island, sailed on December 8 to open her house for the winter and expects to entertain many guests, including her daughter, Mrs. Frank Duff Frazier, of New York, and others. The visits of Palm Beach society people, flying over for the day in one of the great white-winged airplanes, add interest to the season, and this year there promises to be more aviation than ever before, with several fleets of air ships, stationed at Miami and Palm Beach, making frequent trips to Nassau. Air travel is consequently a very important feature of the season. Nassau will have in addition to the regular service of the Ward Line and the time from Miami is two hours, also weekly service established by the Munson Lines. This, in conjunction with the calls of the large cruising steamers, will give her added resources for tourists, consequently a marked increase in the patronage of the resort.

Among New Yorkers who will arrive at the Colonial and Royal Victoria for their openings are Benjamin Green and party of six for the opening of the Royal Victoria, John Nye, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crittenden, who remain during the entire season, H. H. Hathaway, of M. Bowman and Miss Bowman, all of the Royal Victoria.

The Colonial reservations include Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Shepherd, who will arrive there on February 1 from the Poinciana at Palm Beach to spend six weeks, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Erskine and party, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White, Howard Major, who will spend two weeks here, going later to Palm Beach; Mrs. F. M. Noble and son, Mr. and Mrs. D'Acosta Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bowers, H. M. Baldwin, all of New York. Also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vicinus, of Rochester; H. H. Clark, son of Newburgh; Mr. and Mrs. S. Benedict, of Brooklyn, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Arnold, of Albany.

The usual number of golf events, tennis and curling golf tournaments, and pony races have been arranged, making an attractive season of sport. Mr. and Mrs. John McCutcheon, of Chicago, who own one of the small islands in the Bahamas not far from Nassau, pay frequent visits to the resort and also have friends with them from time to time.

Lake Placid Club Prepares for Large Winter Colony

The Lake Placid Club, with its cottages and the various clubs and camps about Saranac, will attract hundreds of winter visitors this season, not only from New York and Philadelphia but from the South and West. Some of the Catskill resorts, too, plan to remain open for the entertainment of the winter sports lovers, and even while a resort may have no special arrangements for winter sports, one may always ski and coast, toboggan and skate, snowshoe and take long sleigh rides.

Building a toboggan slide of flooding a pond for skating and hockey is a matter of comparative ease, and once people start entertaining winter sports lovers they will find that it involves far less work than catering to capricious summer crowds.

Honeymoon Colony at Hot Springs, Va., Has New Members

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barbour and Robert D. Millers Are Among Week's Arrivals; Many New Yorkers on Hand

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Barbour, who were married last week in New York, came down for the early part of their honeymoon. Mrs. Barbour was Miss Elizabeth C. Carver, daughter of Mr. L. Sidney Carver. Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Miller, of Montclair, also were members of the early week honeymoon colony, and were active on the golf course up to their departure on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Murdock came in on Tuesday from New York for a mid-December visit, also Mr. and Mrs. Vincent F. Montalbano, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. March, of Orange, N. J., registered at the clubhouse for golf on their arrival early in the week. Also arriving from New York during the early part of the week were Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kelly and Frank A. Dillingham, who registered at the Bathhouse for the cure. Captain Frederick Russell and Mrs. Russell, of Great Neck, L. I., returned from Washington, where they had been several days. They are to leave for Bermuda in a fortnight to pass the rest of the winter.

The Canadian colony at the Homestead was increased by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sharpe, who are here for a fortnight to take the baths. Major General Sir Edward Morrison and Lady Morrison, of Ottawa, who were here four weeks, left on Monday for New York, where they are to pass several days at the Hotel Belmont before returning home. Before their departure they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams at their cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are to start for New York on Christmas Eve. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer Jr. are at the Homestead from Washington. Mrs. Henry P. Gardner, of New York, drove here several guests on Monday through the Cedar Creek Valley to the cascades and later entertained them at tea in the great hall of the Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McMath, of Asheville, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Seth Ely, of Tulsa, Okla.; Charles Stewart, of Boston; Frank A. Dillingham, of New York, and John E. Maybin, of Toledo, ride daily. Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hill, of Akron, Ohio, drove on Tuesday to Warm Springs to inspect the resort, now closed for the winter.

Mrs. Sidney G. Ashmore and her sister, Miss Martha C. Vail, left for New York after three weeks at the Homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hunt, who arrived here last week, are passing their honeymoon here. Also departing for New York were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Read.

Miss Edith Wynne Matthison appeared before the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon in readings from "Shakespeare's Heroines" at the Haymeyer Auditorium. Many prominent society women of the town attended. Miss Mathison depicted Juliet, Portia, Rosalind and others.

The Fairfield Players, a new dramatic organization formed by prominent local amateurs of the town, will give their initial performance early in January. Mrs. Mary Hill Brown, of New York, will coach the members of the cast.

Miss Dyer has gone to Texas to visit Mrs. Dyer's father, Judge T. D. Duncan, in La Grange. He will return with her. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Dommerich and Alexander L. Dommerich Jr. have returned to their home on Stanwich Road here, after a two months' trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Buckman and Miss Julia Shunley, who are stopping at the Park Arms Hotel, expect to locate in Greenwich early next week. Mrs. Henry Stuart Fleming and Miss Elizabeth Fleming, the latter a student at Rossmore Hall School, are registered at the Arms.

Mrs. George M. Pynchon and daughter, Miss Beatrice Pynchon, and Miss Marie Leary have moved to 910 Fifth Avenue.

Many prominent women of the town were interested in an unusual exhibit and sale of Ukrainian handiwork at the Edgewood School on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Grace Marks, of Willowmore, Sound Beach, has gone to Santa Anna, Cal., to spend the winter with her cousin, Miss Grace Marks.

Mrs. J. W. Monteith, of the Maples, has gone to Naples and Genoa, where she will remain for several months.

Community Fete For Forest Hills On Christmas Eve

Public Tree and "Fireplace Fantasy" With Visit of Santa to 500 Children Will Be Main Program

FOREST HILLS GARDENS, L. I., Dec. 17.—A community celebration will be held here on Christmas Eve in which every resident of Forest Hills Gardens will participate, either as performer or spectator.

Under the direction of the Celebrations Association, the program to be presented this year excels anything that has been tried before. A Christmas tree, fifty feet high, will stand in the bowl of the fountain in Station Square and a huge fireplace will be built against the station platform, where a Christmas fantasy will be enacted. Songs and carols will be sung by the Forest Hills Choral Club and gifts will be distributed to all the Gardens' children, of whom there are more than 500.

Late Saturday afternoon members of the Forest Park Riding and Hunt Club will ride the streets of the village to summon the residents to the gayeties. They will form an attractive and colorful procession, every horseman in a red and white costume, carrying a bright lantern. By 7 o'clock all the men, women and children of the Gardens will have gathered in the square, where the "Fireplace Fantasy" will be given by the Gardens Junior Players under the direction of Mrs. Donald Clark.

Among those to take part will be Thompson Tyler Sweeney and Dinie Claypoole, as any boy and any girl. Anna Mae Grant will be the Doll, Prentiss Wynne, the Tin Soldier, and Benjamin Halsey, the Teddy Bear. Others to take part are Alice Eckman, Margaret Kendrick, Peggy Hines, Jane Eder, George Casselman and Fred Gretch.

Santa Claus, who will come down the chimney, pack and all, will be impersonated by Harvey Warren. But the task of distributing gifts to 500 children will be no light one, so there will be two assistant Santas present, in the persons of S. S. Freeman and Kenneth Knapp.

After the presentation of gifts the yule log will be carried on by six men in costume, escorted by a number of lights carrying torches of red and green fire and singing a Yuletide song; the log will burn on a prepared bed between the tree and the fireplace.

The celebration is being financed by voluntary contributions by the residents of the Gardens. It will cost more than $3,000. The tree itself was obtained in Canada at a cost of $200.

The program of the Celebrations Association are John Messinger, president; Mrs. A. J. Wilson and T. J. Mitchell, vice-presidents; Homer Cory, treasurer, and Scott Robinson, secretary. The program will be given by the Forest Hills Choral Club, led by Charles H. Sannell, chairman; Walter Teague, John Messenger, F. B. Colton and L. P. McGhie. The costumes were designed by W. Lee Teague. Mrs. J. S. Maxwell arranged for the purchase of the toys. The singing will be conducted by Bruno Huhn. There will be more than one hundred voices. Among the singers will be Mrs. Carl C. Logan, Aldrich, H. Dentin Bostow, William Harper, Mrs. Frank Herne, Pearl Benjamin Kaighn, Mrs. W. F. Mohan, William Roberts, N. B. Pope, Mrs. Edward H. Moir and Mrs. Albert V. Moore.

There will be a Christmas Eve dance in the Forest Hills Inn on Saturday night. The hosts will be the Forest Hills Inn, now there are Mr. and Mrs. George I. Malcolm, Harvey A. Willis, W. C. Sheldon, Vernon Booth, Daniel Morse, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Smith, Mrs. F. S. Fales, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Pray, Judge Baylis, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Baylis, A. H. Ball and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Lathrop.

The Court Inn has been open since Thanksgiving, and for so early a date is quite well filled. Among the first to arrive from New York at the Court Inn was Mrs. Sol Smith Russell, who for many winters has been coming to Camden.

Commander George H. Read, U. S. N., is also at the Court Inn. The two 18-hole golf courses are the Camden Country Club looks very lively these brilliant winter days.

Canada Resorts Ready To Celebrate Christmas

Quebec and Montreal Will Combine French and English Observances

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
QUEBEC, Dec. 17.—Yuletide in Canada, as usual, is a real old English Christmas, like a real old English Christmas, especially in Quebec, which combines with the carol singing of Merrie England the midnight mass, with its attendant ceremonies and music, at the old French cathedral, the Basilica. No where on this continent is such a foreign atmosphere as here—now a bit of England and her holiday customs, such as the wassail bowl and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" around the table at the New Year's Eve festivities at the Chateau Frontenac, and again a bit of old France, as the voices of the French singers ring out in such songs as "En Roulez la Boule, Ma Boule" and "Le Rossignol."

The Chateau Frontenac in Quebec and the Place Viger and the Ritz-Carlton in Montreal promise to entertain many holiday parties who will come up from New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Washington to spend the holiday season in the snow-white cities, to revel in the winter sports and to enjoy the Christmas cheer with the French and English dinner and supper dances, the Christmas trees and the New Year's Eve revels in a land unbothered by the Eighteenth Amendment.

The toboggan slide of the Chateau Frontenac, which stands under the King's Bastion of the Citadel, where the Union Jack waves by day, ends under the very nose of Samuel Champlain, perpetuated in bronze to stand sentinel over the fair and of sufferer Terrace, opposite the hotel, again meaning the union of England and France in this far province across the sea.

The winter sports program in Montreal includes skiing and sliding on Mount Royal, the city playground back of the city itself; skating at the Winter Club in Drummond Street, tea and dinner dances at the Ritz-Carlton and Windsor, sleighing and the most thrilling of hockey matches, which are also enjoyed in Quebec several times weekly. Skiing, snowshoeing, sleighing, tobogganing and skating with curling also provide fun for every one.

Camden, S. C., Has Early Influx From the North

December Snowfall Drives Many Below Mason-Dixon Line for the Season

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
CAMDEN, S. C., Dec. 17.—With the first snowfall comes the influx of Northern tourists to this region. This year the snow came early and the Southern resorts are rapidly filling. It is just a twenty-hour journey from New York, and the hotels have a large number of guests and an unusually early booking for the approaching holidays. The cottages are rapidly filling, for it is becoming more and more the custom to spend Christmas out of town, and the fortunate possessors of winter cottages are rapidly opening them before the holidays.

Some of the cottagers who have come to Camden are Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Pomeroy and family, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morgan, of Shelburne, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Harris and family, of Pittsburgh; Dr. and Mrs. Francis Procter, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Brown, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Graham, Miss Kate Gillet and Miss Emma Johnstone, of Baltimore.

The Kirkwood Hotel opened its doors on the 15th of December, and among the New Yorkers, now there are Mr. and Mrs. George I. Malcolm, Harvey A. Willis, W. C. Sheldon, Vernon Booth, Daniel Morse, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Smith, Mrs. F. S. Fales, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Pray, Judge Baylis, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Baylis, A. H.
